Hello, my name is Darrell DiZoglio. I am a Christian Soldier in the war on poverty, despair and unemployment. Sometimes the gift of perspective you receive from walking a mile in someone else's moccasins is priceless. Here is a little insight and inspiration from me to share.

There are two types of wealth in this world, God's and the fleeting material wealth of humanity. God has endowed us with the magnificent planet Earth, which is clearly the diamond of the Milky Way galaxy, health, intelligence, freedom and an unlimited capacity to love. God's love for us is inexhaustible as is our own supply. Has anyone ever asked you how much love do you have left? Not likely because your supply is so large it is not even measurable.

There is also no disputing that the Earth, our good health and love are all wonderful gifts beyond measure. The Earth came with everything in nature from the trees and seas to the humming birds and bumblebees. We know all of nature is beautiful and awe inspiring all you have to do is surround yourself with it, observe it with binoculars or watch the stars with a telescope. Give yourself this gift again and protect it from harm.

Good health is also definitely one of God's greatest gifts; our bodies actually heal themselves when left alone. As mere mortals, we normally only become aware of how precious this gift is when we have lost it temporarily. Perhaps age and only exists to make us aware of what a wonderful gift this is. Does, death exists only to make us aware of what a wonderful gift life is? If it does, even funerals aka "celebrations of life" are a blessing. Carpe diem (Live for the day)!

Intelligence, talent and the capacity to learn are marvelous gifts. Learning helps us to contribute for the greater good, and become valued and productive members of society. If you have ever risen above challenges, surmounted obstacles and been victorious in your endeavors or studies, you can appreciate this gift. Again, it is nearly impossible to appraise its worth because your ability to learn and grow has no limits.

Freedom, now that might be the ultimate gift second only to love. Clearly, our ancestors knew its value for they contributed to the Constitution and Magna Carta. Anyone who has known tyranny, oppression or captivity knows freedom to be priceless. Isn't it wonderful that every day we can choose to be working towards the unlimited opportunities that are ours in America, tend to our garden or visit the beach and surf?

Love, God created us in his divine wisdom so that the more love we give away the more we receive. As anyone over 21 knows, love is without a doubt the most splendid gift of all. If that alone is not proof there is a God, please create a human being from the dust and make sure he is intelligent, beautiful, free, intelligent, self-healing and in good health. Only then will I believe you (cloning does not count).

Children, dogs and cats, even our children and favorite pets have an infinite supply of unconditional love. Now, that is as amazing as it is true. God so loved the world that he even gave us Jesus his only son, and allowed him to be sacrificed for the forgiveness of our sins.

Enlightened people give thanks for this every Sunday or at least twice every year at Easter and Christmas church services. Don't you honestly have plenty to be thankful for? Why not focus on that every day instead of your problems? If you accept all these truths, then you know that often less is more.

Mankind, gave us a small sample of material wealth, governments and the concept of time, all of which are fleeting, taxing or at best come and go as they please. All are limited, difficult if not impossible to master and oh so elusive. In short, there is nothing that compares to God's gifts. Hence, if you ever want to achieve happiness and nirvana, I would urge you to train your attention on God's gifts everyday of your life. That way, you will realize you are already wealthy, healthy, free and living in God's unlimited love and abundance. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
